

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Fair

Fast-Acting

Fiscally Sound

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Principles

Any stimulus plan should:

- Be front-loaded and fast-acting
- Avoid mushrooming deficit in long-term
- Boost consumer demand and investment
- Help states through their fiscal straits
- Spur economy by funding homeland defense
- Devote every penny to short-term stimulus

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Proposals

FY 2003

- Help for the Unemployed Looking for Jobs $18 Billion
- Tax Cuts for America $87 Billion
- Targeted Assistance Including Relief for States and Localities $31 Billion

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Billions of Dollars

2003

2003-13

Extension of Unemployment Benefits

18

10

Tax Relief for Working Families

55

58

Tax Relief for Investment & Job Growth

32

1

Targeted Assistance, Including Aid to States and Localities

31

31

Homeland Security - $10 Billion

Infrastructure - $5 Billion

Medicaid - $10 Billion

Special Support for Critical Needs - $6 Billion

Total

$136

$100

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Individual Tax Proposal:

- Get back 10% of what you earned in 2001, up to $6,000 of wages (couple)
- Rebate paid from Treasury, not Social Security Trust Fund

Democratic Economic Stimulus Plan

Creates New Jobs

Number

1.7 million

800,000 to
1.7 million

1.6 million

850,000

Methodology

Percentage of GDP

Model by Yale Economics Professor
Ray C. Fair

Okun's Law

Bush Administration Council of Economic Advisers' Methodology