The Honorable Pamela Bondi
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Attorney General Bondi:

On behalf of the Committee on Education and Workforce (Committee), we congratulate you on your confirmation as our nation's 87th Attorney General. We look forward to working with you and the Department of Justice (DOJ) as together we seek to improve the federal government's operations for the American people. As part of that effort, we write to call your attention to Committee oversight that was ignored by the Biden-Harris DOJ.

The Committee is continuing its investigation of the Biden-Harris administration's implementation of the Special Financial Assistance (SFA) program that was included in the American Rescue Plan Act. As part of this investigation, the Committee is seeking information about the steps DOJ is taking to ensure that taxpayer money is recovered after the Biden-Harris administration made improper payments to multiemployer pension plans.

In November 2023, the Committee became aware that the Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) approved more than $127 million in SFA program overpayments for at least 3,479 deceased participants for one plan alone: the Central States, Southeast, and Southwest Pension Fund (Central States).¹ As the result of oversight on this matter, the Committee ensured that the $127 million in overpayments would be recovered on behalf of taxpayers.² In April 2024, DOJ announced it entered a civil settlement agreement to receive repayment of these funds from Central States.³ One other plan, the Graphic Communications National Pension Fund (NPF), also agreed to repay $8 million of improper SFA it received on behalf of deceased participants.⁴ However, DOJ has not reported any enforcement activity in connection with more than 60 other plans that received similar improper payments.⁵ PBGC reports that, as of February 7, 2025, about 30 of these 60 plans have voluntarily repaid nearly $30 million.⁶ Therefore, no repayments have been made from the other 30 plans. We are concerned that these other plans have not restored the improper payments.

In August and December 2024, the Committee wrote to then-Attorney General Merrick Garland seeking specific information about what further action DOJ is taking to ensure that other multiemployer pension plans which received improper payments will soon be repaying these funds.⁷ Neither letter received responses.

With the inauguration of President Donald J. Trump and your confirmation as Attorney General, we have an opportunity to address these improper payments and to secure repayments for taxpayers. We request that you ensure DOJ is taking timely and meaningful action to recover improper payments. Attached for your reference are the Committee's letters to the Biden-Harris DOJ on this matter.

Please direct appropriate members of your staff to review the attached letters and contact the Committee at 202-225-4527 to discuss DOJ's efforts to resolve this matter. Information from DOJ may provide important assistance to the Committee in determining whether legislative changes are warranted.⁸

Thank you for your attention to this request. We look forward to your working with you and DOJ during the 119th Congress.

The Honorable Merrick B. Garland
Attorney General
U.S. Department of Justice
950 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20530

Dear Attorney General Garland:

The Committee on Education and the Workforce (Committee) is continuing its investigation of the Biden-Harris administration's implementation of the Special Financial Assistance (SFA) program that was included in the American Rescue Plan Act (ARPA). As part of this investigation, the Committee seeks information about the steps the Department of Justice (DOJ) is taking to ensure that taxpayer money is recovered after the Biden-Harris administration made improper payments to multiemployer plans.

On March 4, 2021, Vice President Kamala Harris cast a tie-breaking vote leading to the enactment of ARPA,¹ a $1.9 trillion "thank you" gift for the interest groups that most supported the 2020 Biden-Harris campaign. Included in ARPA was the SFA program, a taxpayer bailout of failing multiemployer pension plans which did nothing to ensure that future workers and retirees would receive the retirement benefits they were promised. PBGC projects it will pay an estimated $79.7 billion in SFA to 211 failing multiemployer pension plans.² As of July 15, 2024, PBGC had approved $61.9 billion in SFA.³

Committee Republicans have long understood the need to conduct oversight on ARPA and the Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation's (PBGC) implementation of the SFA program. In November 2023, the Committee became aware that PBGC approved more than $127 million in SFA program overpayments for at least 3,479 deceased participants for one plan alone, the Central States, Southeast, and Southwest Pension Fund (Central States).⁴ Through its dogged oversight on this matter—including letters to the PBGC, a hearing, and the issuance of a subpoena—the Committee ensured that the $127 million in overpayments would be recovered on behalf of taxpayers.⁵ On April 8, 2024, DOJ announced it had entered into a civil settlement agreement to receive repayment of these funds from Central States.⁶ One other plan, the Graphic Communications National Pension Fund (NPF), also agreed to repay $8 million of improper SFA it received on behalf of deceased participants.⁷ However, PBGC has not reported repayment from more than 60 other plans that received similar improper payments.⁸

While the Committee appreciates that DOJ has reached civil settlement agreements with two plans, these funds are likely not the only multiemployer pension plans to have received overpayments for deceased individuals. PBGC identified deceased participants on rolls of more than 60 other multiemployer plans that received improper payments based on those rolls.⁹ None of these other plans are reported to have restored the improper payments. The Committee requests information about what further action DOJ is taking to ensure that other multiemployer pension plans that received improper payments will soon be repaying these funds.

The Committee is serious about its investigation and about seeking legislative change. Chairwoman Foxx has introduced H.R. 7135, the Ghost Handouts and Overpayments Stop Today Act (GHOST Act), to ensure PBGC and DOJ are fulfilling their duties to ensure that SFA overpayments are being repaid. Further information from DOJ may be critical to revise the GHOST Act or to draft similar legislation. Please, therefore, provide the specific information or responses requested by no later than August 21, 2024.

1. Provide all documents and communications related to DOJ's decision to investigate Central States and the Graphic Communications NPF.

2. Provide all documents and communications related to any steps DOJ is taking to ensure that all other multiemployer pension plans that received improper SFA payments will repay those amounts.
3. Is DOJ investigating or planning to investigate any of the more than 60 other multiemployer pension plans for which PBGC identified deceased participants on the plans' applications for SFA payments? If so, provide the names of those multiemployer pension plans that DOJ is investigating or plans to investigate.
4. Provide all documents and communications related to any multiemployer pension plans for which PBGC identified deceased participants on the plans' application rolls but which DOJ has chosen not to investigate.

House Rule X vests the Committee with the jurisdiction and responsibility to “review and study on a continuing basis ... the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of laws and programs addressing subjects within its jurisdiction.”¹⁰ This includes the Committee’s obligation to investigate the Biden-Harris administration’s implementation of the SFA program—including DOJ’s actions to ensure all overpayments are returned to taxpayers. Responding to Committee Document Requests

1. The agency's response to questions and request(s) should be answered or provided in separate document and not included inside a narrative response.
2. In complying with this request, you should produce all responsive documents that are in your agency's possession, custody, or control, whether held by you or other past or present employees of the executive branch, or a representative acting on your behalf. Your response should also produce documents that you have a legal right to obtain, that the agency has a right to copy or to which you have access, or that you have placed in the temporary possession, custody, or control of any third party.
3. Records, documents, data or information that have been requested and/or are related to underlying requests should not be destroyed, modified, removed, transferred or otherwise made inaccessible to the Committee on Education and the Workforce (the "Committee").
4. If any entity, organization or individual denoted in this request has been, or is also known by any other name than that herein denoted, the request shall be read also to include that alternative identification.
5. The Committee's preference is to receive documents in electronic form (i.e., email, CD, memory stick, or thumb drive) in lieu of paper productions. To the extent responses are provided in paper form, any documents that are stapled, clipped, or otherwise fastened together should not be separated. Documents produced in response to a request should be produced together with copies of file labels, dividers, or identifying markers with which they were associated when this request was issued.
6. Regardless of format, documents produced pursuant to this request should be produced in the order in which they appear in your files and should not be rearranged. Indicate the office or division and person from whose files each document was produced.
7. Regardless of format, documents produced to the Committee should include an index describing the contents of the production and a total page count for the entire production. To the extent more than one CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box or folder is produced, each CD, hard drive, memory stick, thumb drive, box, or folder should contain an index describing its contents. Documents produced in electronic format should also be identified and indexed electronically.
8. Electronic document productions should be prepared according to the following standards:
 - (a) The production should consist of single page Tagged Image File ("TIF"), files accompanied by a Concordance-format load file, an Opticon reference file, and a file defining the fields and character lengths of the load file.
 - (b) Document numbers in the load file should match document Bates numbers and TIF file names.

(c) If the production is completed through a series of multiple partial productions, field names and file order in all load files should match.

9. All documents shall be Bates-stamped sequentially and produced sequentially.
10. When you produce documents, you should individually identify the paragraph, question number or request number in the Committee's request to which the documents respond.
11. It shall not be a basis for refusal to produce documents that any other person or entity—either inside or outside of the executive branch—also possesses non-identical or identical copies of the same documents.
12. If any of the requested information is only reasonably available in machine-readable form (such as on a computer server, hard drive, or computer backup tape), the agency's staff should consult with the Committee staff to determine the appropriate format in which to produce the information.
13. If compliance with any request cannot be made in full, compliance shall be made to the extent possible and shall include a written explanation of why full compliance is not possible.
14. If the agency does not expect to produce all documents responsive to a request by the date requested, the agency's staff shall consult with the Committee as soon as it is known the agency cannot meet the deadline, but no later than 24 hours before the due date to explain:
 - (a) what will be provided by the due date;
 - (b) why the agency believes certain materials cannot be produced by the due date; and
 - (c) the agency's proposed timeline for providing any omitted information.
15. If any document responsive to this request was, but no longer is, in your possession, custody, or control, or has been placed into the possession, custody, or control of any third party and cannot be provided in response to this request, you should:
 - (a) identify the document, including its date, author, subject, and recipients;
 - (b) explain the circumstances under which the document ceased to be in your possession, custody, or control, or was placed in the possession, custody, or control of a third party;
 - (c) state how the document was disposed of;
 - (d) identify the name, current address, and telephone number of the person who currently has possession, custody or control over the document;
 - (e) state the date of disposition; and

- (f) identify the name, current address, and telephone number of each person who authorized said disposition or who had or has knowledge of said disposition.
16. If any document responsive to this request cannot be located, identify the document and describe with particularity the efforts made to locate the document and the specific reason for its disappearance, destruction or unavailability.
17. In the event that a document or portion of a document is withheld on the basis of privilege, provide a privilege log containing the following information concerning any such document or redaction:
- (a) Bates number(s);
 - (b) the privilege asserted and the grounds therefor;
 - (c) the type of document;
 - (d) the general subject matter;
 - (e) any other description necessary to identify the document;
 - (f) the date, author, and addressee; and
 - (g) the relationship of the author and addressee to each other.

If a claimed privilege applies to only a portion of any document, that portion only should be withheld and the remainder of the document should be produced.

18. Any objections or claims of privilege are waived if you fail to provide an explanation of why full compliance is not possible and a log identifying with specificity the ground(s) for withholding each withheld document prior to the request compliance date.
19. In complying with the request, be apprised that (unless otherwise determined by the Committee) the Committee does not recognize: any purported non-disclosure privileges associated with the common law including, but not limited to, the deliberative-process privilege, the attorney-client privilege, and attorney work product protections; any purported privileges or protections from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act; or any purported contractual privileges, such as non-disclosure agreements.
20. Any assertion by a request recipient of any such non-constitutional legal bases for withholding documents or other materials, for refusing to answer any deposition question, or for refusing to provide hearing testimony, shall be of no legal force and effect and shall not provide a justification for such withholding or refusal, unless and only to the extent that the Committee (or the chair of the Committee, if authorized) has consented to recognize the assertion as valid.

21. If a date or other descriptive detail set forth in this request referring to a document, communication, meeting, or other event is inaccurate, but the actual date or other descriptive detail is known to you or other agency employees, or is otherwise apparent from the context of the request, you should produce all documents that would be responsive as if the date or other descriptive detail were correct.
22. The time period covered by this request is included in the attached request. To the extent a time period is not specified, produce relevant documents from January 20, 2021 to the present.
23. This request is continuing in nature and applies to any newly-discovered information. Any record, document, compilation of data or information, not produced because it has not been located or discovered by the return date, shall be produced immediately upon subsequent location or discovery. Such submission shall include an explanation as to why the information was not produced originally.
24. If physical documents are to be delivered, two sets of documents should be delivered, one set to the Majority Staff in Room 2176 of the Rayburn House Office Building and one set to the Minority Staff in Room 2101 of the Rayburn House Office Building during Committee office hours (9am-5pm, unless other arrangements are made) and signed by members of the respective staffs upon delivery.
25. Upon completion of the document production, the agency's written response should include a written certification, signed by the Secretary or his or her designee, stating that:
 - (a) a diligent search has been completed of all documents in your possession, custody, or control that reasonably could contain responsive documents; and
 - (b) all documents located during the search that are responsive have been produced to the Committee.

Definitions

1. The term "document" means any written, recorded, or graphic matter of any nature whatsoever, regardless of how recorded, and whether original or copy, including, but not limited to, the following: memoranda, reports, expense reports, books, manuals, instructions, financial reports, working papers, records, notes, letters, notices, confirmations, telegrams, receipts, appraisals, pamphlets, magazines, newspapers, prospectuses, inter-office and intra-office communications, electronic mail (e-mail), contracts, cables, notations of any type of conversation, telephone call, meeting or other communication, bulletins, printed matter, computer printouts, teletypes, invoices, transcripts, diaries, analyses, returns, summaries, minutes, bills, accounts, estimates, projections, comparisons, messages, correspondence, press releases, circulars, financial statements, reviews, opinions, offers, studies and investigations, questionnaires and surveys, and work sheets (and all drafts, preliminary versions, alterations, modifications, revisions, changes, and amendments of any of the foregoing, as well as any attachments or appendices thereto), and graphic or oral records or representations of any kind (including without limitation, photographs, charts, graphs, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, recordings and motion pictures), and electronic, mechanical, and electric records or representations of any kind (including, without limitation, tapes, cassettes, disks, and recordings) and other written, printed, typed, or other graphic or recorded matter of any kind or nature, however produced or reproduced, and whether preserved in writing, film, tape, disk, videotape or otherwise. A document bearing any notation not a part of the original text is to be considered a separate document. A draft or non-identical copy is a separate document within the meaning of this term.

2. The term “documents in your possession, custody or control” means documents that are in your possession, custody, or control, whether held by you or your past or present agents, employees, or representatives acting on your behalf; documents that you have a legal right to obtain, that you have a right to copy, or to which you have access; and/or documents that have been placed in the possession, custody, or control of any third party.
3. The term “communication” means each manner or means of disclosure or exchange of information, regardless of means utilized, whether oral, electronic, by document or otherwise, and whether in a meeting, by telephone, facsimile, email, regular mail, telexes, releases, or otherwise.
4. The terms “and” and “or” shall be construed broadly and either conjunctively or disjunctively to bring within the scope of this request any information which might otherwise be construed to be outside its scope. The singular includes plural number, and vice versa. The masculine includes the feminine and neuter genders.
5. The terms “person” or “persons” mean natural persons, firms, partnerships, associations, corporations, subsidiaries, divisions, departments, joint ventures, proprietorships, syndicates, or other legal, business or government entities, and all subsidiaries, affiliates, divisions, departments, branches, or other units thereof.
6. The term “identify,” when used in a question about individuals, means to provide the following information: (a) the individual's complete name and title; and (b) the individual's business address and phone number.
7. The term “referring or relating,” with respect to any given subject, means anything that constitutes, contains, embodies, reflect s, identifies, states, refers to, deals with or is pertinent to that subject in any manner whatsoever.
8. The term “agency” means any department, independent establishment, or corporation of the federal government. For the purposes of responding to oversight requests, the Committee expects information to be provided from all sub-agencies of an agency and not just the information that is immediately available to the addressee or the addressee’s immediate sub-agency.
9. The term “privilege” includes, but is not limited to, any claim that a document either may or must be withheld from production pursuant to any statute, rule, or regulation.

10. The term “employee” means agent, borrowed employee, casual employee, consultant, de facto employee, joint adventurer, loaned employee, part-time employee, permanent employee, provisional employee, contract employee, contractor, or any other type of service provider.
11. The term “Administration” means and refers to any department, agency, division, office, subdivision, entity, official, administrator, employee, attorney, agent, advisor, consultant, staff, or any other person acting on behalf or under the control or direction of the Executive Branch.
12. “You” or “your” means and refers to you as a natural person and the United States and any of its agencies, offices, subdivisions, entities, officials, administrators, employees, attorneys, agents, advisors, consultants, staff, contractors, or any other persons acting on your behalf or under your control or direction; and includes any other person(s) defined in the document request letter.

Washington, DC 20530

Dear Attorney General Garland:

The Committee on Education and the Workforce (Committee) is continuing its investigation of the Biden-Harris administration's implementation of the Special Financial Assistance (SFA) program that was included in the American Rescue Plan Act. As part of this investigation, the Committee is continuing to seek information about the steps the Department of Justice (DOJ) is taking to ensure that taxpayer money is recovered after the Biden-Harris administration made improper payments to multiemployer pension plans.

In November 2023, the Committee became aware that the Pension Benefits Guaranty Corporation (PBGC) approved more than $127 million in SFA program overpayments for at least 3,479 deceased participants for one plan alone: the Central States, Southeast, and Southwest Pension Fund (Central States).¹ As the result of oversight on this matter, the Committee ensured that the $127 million in overpayments would be recovered on behalf of taxpayers.² On April 8, 2024, DOJ announced it had entered into a civil settlement agreement to receive repayment of these funds from Central States.³ One other plan, the Graphic Communications National Pension Fund (NPF), also agreed to repay $8 million of improper SFA it received on behalf of deceased participants.⁴ However, PBGC has not reported repayment from more than 60 other plans that received similar improper payments.⁵ We are concerned that none of these other plans have restored the improper payments.

On August 7, we wrote to you seeking specific information about what further action DOJ is taking to ensure that other multiemployer pension plans which received improper payments will soon be repaying these funds.⁶ However, more than four months later, DOJ has failed to respond to the Committee's letter. As the letter stated, "The Committee is serious about its investigation and seeking legislative change."⁷ DOJ's failure to respond to our inquiry is frustrating the Committee's ability to fulfill its investigative and legislative duties on this matter. Additionally, as the end of the 118th Congress approaches, it appears DOJ is "running the clock" to keep important information away from Congress and the public.

House Rule X vests the Committee with the jurisdiction and responsibility to "review and study on a continuing basis ... the application, administration, execution, and effectiveness of laws and programs addressing subjects within its jurisdiction."⁸ This includes the Committee's obligation to investigate the Biden-Harris administration's implementation of the SFA program, which encompasses DOJ's actions – or lack thereof – to ensure all overpayments are returned to taxpayers. The Committee requests that DOJ provide complete answers to the inquiries included in our August 7 letter by no later than December 23, 2024.

Sincerely,

Virginia Foxx
